

M/Y FOUR FRIENDS on the Norwegian South Coast, a special and unique coastline.

Norwegian South Coast

Day 1: Hvasser

Arrive from Oslo, after settling in, take a short cruise to Hvasser. A small un-spoilt and scenic destination. The south coast is where the Norwegian summer is at its best. Here you can lie out on a rock and soak up the sun with a good book & later enjoy a relaxed dinner on board.

Day 2: Hvasser –Færder Fyr –Kragereø

Go ashore to experience local life and culture, visit the lighthouse and hear about it's dramatic history & daily life. Try some of the local delicacies.

Norwegian South Coast

Day 3: Virgin Island and Risør

The White city of the South - Risør is one of Europe's best kept wooden house towns. Enjoy freshly cooked shrimps, locally caught a couple of hours earlier with a glass of cold beer at one of the local restaurants. Risør is famous for its tourist attraction's such as the wooden boat festival which is staged during the first week of August every year. It also has a growing reputation as the regional capital of arts and crafts, which culminates in the "Villvin-festival" during the summer holiday.

Day 4: Lyngør and Arendal

There are many wonderful buildings in both Arendal and Tvedestrand town centres and outside the towns, displaying how locals previously built houses. Many areas and houses have been preserved, and there area special regulations regarding usage and restoration concerning these buildings.

Norwegian South Coast

Day 5: Grimstad –Blindleia -Kristiansand

The journey by sea from Gristad to Kristiansand is one of the most beautiful cruises you will experience along the south coast.

Day 6: Kristiansand - Stavern, the return cruise

Minnehallen, also known as the hall of remembrance, in Stavern, was commissioned by the Norwegian parliament after World War I to commemorate the fallen Norwegian sailors of the war. The monument itself is a pyramid of locally quarried rock and is designed by two architects from Oslo.

Norwegian South Coast

Day 7: Cruise back to Oslo

Enjoy the beautiful scenery on your return cruise back to Oslo.

This itinerary is designed simply as a suggestion on how you may wish to spend your time on board and can be altered to suit you.